“Looking at the Scriptures through the Eyes of a First Century Jew”

What Yeshua said about his Purpose

Matthew 5:17 Do not suppose that I have any intention of doing away with the Torah or the Prophets. My purpose is rather to place them on a firmer footing by interpreting them correctly in terms of God's ultimate will as He originally intended for His commandments to be obeyed.

The Law of God, also known as the Torah, emanates from the abiding goodness of God's nature and thus stands forever, God being unchangeable. When we observe the Torah, it is a reflection of His Divine Nature resident within us.

Today's Torah Portion Deuteronomy 7:12 — 11:25

2. Deuteronomy 10:16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked.
Deuteronomy 30:6 And Yahweh thy Elohim will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love Yahweh thy Elohim with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.
Which is it: He does it or we do it? And where does Jeremiah 31 fit?

3. Deuteronomy 11:18 Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. What is binding them for a sign and frontlets between your eyes?

4. Deuteronomy 11:20 And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates: Explain how this is to be fulfilled.

As you know, an aspect of our outreach is to new people coming into the Hebrew Roots walk. What I would like to do is have each family (we'll call this a peer review process) take a presentation given this year and form around 5 questions. I will collect these and create a "final exam" for the "What About Scriptures" and prepare it for publication at the Feast of Tabernacles, Season of our Joy, in Missouri this year.

I'm thinking the best way would be for me to assign each family a specific presentation. If for some reason a family cannot do theirs, then they can let me know and I will do it or another family can do it. A family could also volunteer for 2 if they so wanted.

Once I have the "final exam" completed, I'll make it available to each family in our congregation so they can make a determination of how ready they are to "give an account" on these basic foundational subjects.

Let me know what you guys think.
